List of American Girls Who Have Married English Noblemen.

The Countess de Castellane will find on her arrival in France that she is in the midst of a sisterhood of American girls who have married foreign titles. The fate of most of them has been sad, those marrying into the English nobility being much better off than the ones who sought rank across the channel. Following are the principal marriages between American girls and English noblemen:

Miss Helen Magruder, daughter of Commodore Magruder, U. S. N., married Lord Abinger in 1863.

Miss Mary Livingston King, Sandwich, Ga., married at Paris, 1880, to the Marquis of Anglesey.

Miss Matilda Murphy, New York, married in 1864 to Sir Robert Burnett.

Miss Ellen Stager, of Chicago, daughter of General Anson Stager, U. S. A., married in 1877 to Lord Butler, heir to the marquessate of Ormonde.

Miss Jennie Jerome, New York, married in 1874 Lord Randolph Churchill.

Miss Mary Reade, New York, married in 1879 Lord Falkland.

Miss Katherine McKivier, New York, married in 1879 Lord Grantley. She was the divorced wife of his uncle.

Miss Elizabeth Motley, daughter of the historian, married in 1876 Sir William Vernon Harcourt.

Miss Consuelo Yznaga del Valle, of Louisiana, married in 1876 Viscount Mandeville, eldest son of the Duke of Manchester.

Mrs. Louis Hamersley, of New York, married in 1888 the Duke of Marlborough.

Miss Frances Lawrence, of New York, married in 1885 to Lord Vernon.

Unwitting Praise of the Enemy.

A good deal of amusement was created here by the predicament in which a New York newspaper found itself one day last week, says the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times-Herald. The republican organ is noted for its bitterness against Secretary Gresham, and distinguished as the paper which not long ago brought forth the theory that Mr. Gresham's mind must be unsound. It had promptly seized upon the Alliance incident and published a stirring editorial setting forth the policy which should be pursued by this government. It declared that the state department should demand an immediate apology of Spain and a guarantee that there should be no further interference with American ships. Its arguments were supported by citations from Wharton, and the editor succeeded in making out a very good case. It happened, however, that on the day before this editorial appeared Secretary Gresham had sent his now famous dispatch to Madrid without being good enough to take the editor into his confidence. Just as the fire-eating republican journalist was about to launch forth one of his terrible diatribes against the un-American secretary of state came the news that Mr. Gresham had already done precisely what the editor had said should be done. This has put the great moral organ in a dilemma, and the only way it could escape was by defending the policy of the state department, even at the expense of its dearest convictions concerning the usefulness and patriotism of the secretary of state.

FITS CURED

(From U. S. Journal of Medicine.) Prof. W. H. Pecke, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise anyone wishing a cure to address Prof. W. H. PECKE, P. O. 4 Cedar St., New York.

Travelers tell us that when the ostrich is pursued it hides its head in the sand, the silly bird appearing to think that if it cannot see its pursuers they cannot see it.

Equally absurd are those medical advisers who prescribe for the symptoms and not the source of a disease. Oftentimes they do this because the patient desires it, unwisely demanding that eruptions or other skin troubles be effaced at once. To do this it is necessary to use poisonous applications, which must sooner or later aggravate the disease or cause it to appear in new and more dangerous form.

There is scarcely a single ill to which flesh is heir but what has its origin in impure blood. Therefore, the only way to cure these troubles is through testimonial as to its value. I have several times in my life been badly

Poisoned With Creeping Ivy, once when a boy and once when in mature life, so badly that I had to have medical treatment. As the old school of medicine simply tried to remove the symptoms instead of trying to remove the source of them, much of the poison was left in my system to appear in an itching humor on my body with every violent exertion in warm weather. At all times there were more or less indications of poison in my blood, up to a year ago last winter, when Large Sores Broke Out on my body. I then purchased of our druggist, L. N. Hopkins, a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after using that and a half of another bottle, the sores and humor disappeared. I attended the Christian Endeavor Convention in the blood. And the remedy which has proved itself powerful and successful when all other prescriptions and treatment failed, is certainly the safest and surest for you to take.

Read what Rev. Mr. Schnell, a respected pastor of Apalachin, N. Y., has to say about its success in his case:

"Apalachin, N. Y., Aug. 8, 1894.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"My Dear Sirs: In view of the beneficial effects I have had from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla I wish to give the following

Montreal and also visited the World's Fair in the hottest weather last summer. Was on the go all the time, but of the burning and itching sensation which had marred every previous summer's outing. I, therefore, have occasion to be enthusiastic in my praises of Hood's Sarsaparilla." SAMUEL S. SCHNELL, pastor of Free Baptist Church.

Pure Milk.

The business of the country is settling into its former groove. Our gentlemanly driver has returned from his vacation, the cows in the pasture switch flies instead of bullets with their tails and the cream is richer in consequence. We believe we have satisfied every one of our customers who have taken milk from us and we are in a position to supply a great many more. The people who from choice or necessity visited Waialae during the past two weeks have had an opportunity to see just what sort of diet our stock feeds upon, and no longer wonder at the richness of the milk from our dairy.

Our facilities for delivery are the best. With the exception of a day or two early in the late unpleasantness our drivers have always been on time at our customers' residences. We take this opportunity to thank those who have been patient with us and to solicit a continuance of their patronage. We will be pleased to fill all orders telephoned to us and guarantee all milk to be pure and free from adulteration.
